

Western Port Bay boasts a rugged coastline and villages that are rich in history. There are many boutique stores and antique outlets, not to mention picturesque walks. What you may not know is that this region is home to some amazing venues, unique cellar doors and family adventures you probably wished you'd been told about earlier!

Dine alongside spectacular sculptures, enjoy ocean inspired dishes in a funky bar, or maybe an overnight stay with uninterrupted views of our coastline in our newest hotel – the choice is yours. Meander down windy backroads to experience quaint wineries and vineyards whose cellar doors are operated by the very people that bring you the wine. If its sweets you're after, then chocolate bliss is not far away. There's farmyard fun, a famous hedge maze and lavender garden for you and the family to explore. Sound like a great day out or weekend escape? Why not go wander the Western Port!
